A Message from Your Priest

Dearest Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

I'm back! My time away was restoring and vitalizing, and as I return to my duties as your Priest-in-Charge, I am energized and thrilled to embark on the beginning of my second year with you. That's right! Today is the first anniversary of our ministry together. Congratulations, and may God continue to bring us mutual blessing, clarity of vision, and a burning passion for loving one another, and serving the world in Jesus' name.

Have you been delivered?

Over the next two months we will walk the dusty road through the Sinai desert with the ancient Hebrews, be led by pillars of fire and cloud, drink water from a rock, and discover what it truly means to be "delivered." We will continue to explore the depths of God's sufficiency, and engage the Spirit of God in the work of softening our hearts to God and one another through service, study and sacrifice. We will welcome new folks into our community. We will reconcile broken relations. We will move beyond the familiar and the safe to meet the world's great need with love and mercy. And we will love one another with a deeper and truer loving care than we ever believed possible. Love beyond our dreams. That's what Jesus has in store for us.

First we were loved; now we love.

See you Sunday!

(The Rev.) George Daisa
