A Message from Your Rector

A Letter from our Postulant and Seminarian, KC Robertson:

My dearest St. Pat's Family,

Welp, the time has come...I have wrapped up my Middler year and can now say I am a Senior! Oh my goodness, how is that possible to be in my last year of seminary?! Admittedly, at the beginning of this semester, I thought it would be too tricky to make it to this point. But here we are, thanks to our good and gracious God, along with the overflowing cup of support of you, my St. Pat's family. From cards, to calls, to books, to surprises, and especially to taking over loving on my parents, these leaky cheeks say thank you to each and every one of you! On this note, I have a bit of good news. I have officially been invited for my Candidacy Interviews in October! Mainly, this is the last huge step/requirement, aside from graduating next year, to hopefully and God-willingly, be able to pursue the call of ordination! Yes, please have those prayers flying in the beginning of October, haha. I am traveling back west this week for the month of June, so I do dearly hope to see you all, check-in and give hugs. Once again, how grateful and honored I am to be St. Pat's postulant and seminarian.

In Joy-KC
