A Message from Your Rector

Dear Friends,

This Sunday, June 3, we will celebrate the young people in our community.

Many of our middle schoolers and senior high young people serve in the worship service on Sunday as Acolytes, Crucifers, Lectors, and Intercessors. They bring vitality and joy to our worship, and we will acknowledge their contribution and honor their generous gifts.

We will also celebrate two graduating seniors this Sunday who are recipients of the St. Patrick's Mad Attic Scholarship. The Mad Attic Thrift Store is St. Patrick's longest running and most impactful outreach ministry, along with the Day School, of course! Over its five-plus decades of service to the Conejo community, the Mad Attic has given over one million dollars in college scholarships, community service grants and funding for charities around the Conejo and beyond. One of its star achievements is the College Scholarship given to St. Patrick's graduating seniors every year. This year's recipients have been selected because of their outstanding leadership and service to our church and community. They each have been involved in youth group and have served the church in different capacities through their time here at St. Pat's. Who are these magnificent young people? You'll have to come Sunday at 10:15 am to find out!

If you have a middle schooler or high schooler who serves in any liturgical way, (i.e., Acolytes, Crucifers, Lectors and Intercessors), please be sure to attend the 10:15 service this Sunday, June 3.

See you Sunday.
