A Message from KC Robertson

Dearest St. Pat's Family,

It has been such a joy to be back in the Conejo Valley these last few weeks and to be able to check in with many of you while also meeting so many of you wonderful new parishioners! I am beyond grateful for Fr. George's guidance to be able to help with various services and to preach. And I am also grateful for all your willingly patient ears as I continue to hone my preaching abilities.

Alas, this is my last week here before I head to Austin, TX for a couple of weeks for the 79th General Convention of the Episcopal Church, so farewell until September. Crazy to believe that next time I'm back, I'll be in the midst of my last year of seminary as a senior. I am continuously updating my Amazon Wish list with the new required texts and resources that would be a tremendous help to receive assistance with. It still amazes me that the support from all of you and family and friends has made it possible for every book to be purchased these last few years (wow!!!)- how thankful this humbled seminarian is! Do take care my beloved St. Pat's family.

In Joy-KC
